

Description

Built from one continuous piece of matched-grain Baltic Birch ply, the Case Study® 5 Drawer Dresser, is handsome and understated. Pared down to its essential elements, the dresser features four roomy drawers with hidden, easy-to-use, cut-away handles. These durable drawers smoothly glide open, and softly close with a self-closing vacuum-mechanism.

Modernica designed and built this dresser to provide a lifetime of outstanding durability, while maintaining a modern, clean look for your home.

Made in California.
